II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. Jurisdiction arises under the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. §§ 206-207, the Portal-to-Portal Act, 29 U.S.C. §251 et seq., and for the supplemental Illinois statutory claims, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1367. Venue lies in the Northern District of Illinois in that during all times relevant to the employment relationship, Plaintiff has performed work in this district and is a resident of this district and Defendants are or were engaged in business in this district.

III. THE PARTIES

3. Defendant, MEDICAL DIAGNOSTICS SERVICES, INC., provides medical imaging services in Chicago, Illinois, and facilities in the states of Indiana, Michigan, Wisconsin, Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, Georgia, Florida and New York. As such, Defendant's services qualify as an enterprise engaged in commerce as defined by the FLSA. During all relevant times Defendant was acting directly or indirectly in the interest of the employer in relation to the employee Plaintiff and therefore, as defined under both the federal and state statutes relied upon, is an "employer."

4. Defendants, SHAMMS U SHIDDIQUI, INDIVIDUALLY, AND MUNEER HASSAN, INDIVIDUALLY, are owners of Medical Diagnostics, and at all times relevant hereto were acting directly or indirectly in the interest of the employer in relation to the employee Plaintiffs and therefore, as defined under both the federal and state statutes relied upon, were and are "employers".

5. Plaintiff, ALTHAF B. SHAFFI IBRAHIM, (hereinafter referred to as "the named Plaintiff") is a current employee who performs work for Defendants in a clerical position, receiving, labeling and shipping images. All other unnamed Plaintiffs, known and unknown (hereinafter referred to as "members of the Plaintiff Class" or "similarly situated Plaintiffs"), are past or present employees who work or worked for Defendants at any one of their facilities as described above. As an employee performing duties for an enterprise engaged in commerce, the named Plaintiff and all members of the Plaintiff Class were also engaged in commerce as defined by the FLSA.

6. The claims brought herein by the named Plaintiff are identical or similar to the claims of other past and present employees who were subject to the non-compliant policies and practices alleged herein.

7. The non-compliant practices as alleged herein were part of a variety of practices and policies implemented and maintained by Defendants and are common to a group or "class" of past and present employees. Those past and present employees are entitled to receive Notice of these proceedings and afforded opportunity to join their individual claims.

IV. STATUTORY VIOLATIONS

Collective Action Under The Fair Labor Standards Act

8. Pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. §216(b), Count I of this action is brought by Plaintiff as an opt-in representative or collective action, on behalf of himself and other Plaintiffs similarly situated, who have been damaged by Defendants' failure to comply with 29 U.S.C. §201 et seq. and §251 et seq. Count II alleges a willful violation of the FLSA and seeks an additional third year of limitations. Count III seeks liquidated damages under the Fair Labor Standards Act, Section 260.

9. Pursuant to the Illinois Minimum Wage Law, 820 ILCS §105/1 et seq., Count IV of this action is brought by Plaintiff to recover unpaid back wages earned on or before the date three (3) years prior to the filing of this action. Each and every Plaintiff who joins this case in the future shall specifically adopt and assert the claims made under this Count IV.

V. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS RELEVANT TO ALL COUNTS

10. Plaintiff at all times pertinent to the cause of action has been employed by Defendants, said employment being integral and indispensable to Defendants' business.

11. Defendants employed Plaintiff in a clerical position, and the job duties of Plaintiff qualifies Plaintiff as an employee under the provisions of the FLSA and the pendent state statutes.

12. 16. Pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act, Plaintiff and all other employees similarly situated, past or present, are entitled to compensation at a rate not less than one and one-half times his regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of forty (40), in the three (3) years preceding the filing of this complaint.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and all other Plaintiffs similarly situated, known and unknown, respectfully requests this Court to enter an order:

COUNT IV

SUPPLEMENTAL STATE LAW CLAIM

1-18. Paragraphs 1 through 18 of Count III are re-alleged and incorporated as though set forth fully herein as Paragraphs 1 through 18 of this Count IV.

19. As described in the foregoing paragraphs, Defendants' compensation policies and practices are in violation of the Illinois Minimum Wage Law, 820 ILCS §115/1 et seq.

20. During a portion or all of the relevant time at issue herein, the Illinois Minimum Wage Law provided that an employer who fails to pay the required amount of wages due an employee under the law shall be liable to the underpaid employee or employees for the unpaid wages and for punitive damages in the amount of 2% of the amount of such underpayments for each month following the date such underpayments remain unpaid.

(e) for such additional relief the Court deems just and appropriate under the circumstances.

COUNT V

VIOLATION OF FAIR LABOR STANDARDS ACT

1-21. Paragraphs 1 through 21 of Count V are realleged and incorporated as though set forth fully herein as Paragraphs 1 through 21 of this Count V.

22. Pursuant to Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. §215(a)(3), it is illegal for an employer to retaliate against an employee for asserting any statutory right conferred upon the employee by the FLSA.

23. Here, upon Plaintiff's expressed complaints to Defendants, and Plaintiff's assertion of back overtime wages by and through the Illinois Department of Labor, Defendants retaliated against Plaintiff by reducing Plaintiff's work hours, and thus his compensation, and assigning those work hours to other employees within Defendant's work force.

24. Defendants' reassignment of work hours and compensation from Plaintiff to other employees constitutes an act of retaliation against Plaintiff in response to assertion of his lawful FLSA rights and is therefore in violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 USC Section 215(a)(3).

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests this Court to enter an order:

(a) awarding back pay equal to the amount of all wages lost by Plaintiff as a result of the retaliatory acts complained of herein;
